NATIONAL BACK COURSE—THE TROTS CSTREAM.T.—The attendance at the Na-mal course yesterlay was not so great as Monday, it being evident that the lovers sport had been satisfied with the splendid of sport had been satisfied with the splendid shibition of the day previous, and were wait-ing auxilians expectancy for the great rare of Thirelay. The first business to be settled resterily was to conclude the race between he District horses postponed from Monday in account of darkness coming ou. The torses and their drivers were named in the depublican yesterday, and the race stood as ollows: The grey horse Unknown had won no heat, and Bessie two; Mikmaid, the bay sare, had none.

trict horses, and after two or three bed starts, they got a send-off, the brown mare, Bessie, slightly in the advance. The was soon passed by Mikmaid, who in turn was collared at the half mile turn by Unknown, who, trotting along very steadily, soon became forenose, and gradually opened a gap between himself and the other animals. But Nelson, the driver of Bessie, arged his horse and rapidly possing Mikmaid, got up to the Grey as he was turning the last quarter. A pretty nock and nock race was then witnessed between the two horses down the home stretch. They kept close tagether all the way down, the mare breaking several times, and gaining on the grey by running. They crossed the score with Ressie about a half length shead. As the mare had transgressed the rules in regard to running, the heat was awarded to the Unknown. Time, 3-48.

On the second heat Bessie was in the rear, the grey gelding ahead, with Mikmaid alongside gradually the grey drew away and continued the lend to near last quarter-pole, when he was collared by Bessie, who had in the meantime been doing a tail plece of running. Coming down the home stretch, Bessie and the grey were close together, but the mare broke several times, gaining as she run. They crossed the score with Ressie in the last heat, the best and race were awarded to Unknown. Time, 2-475.

The horses for the two-mile-heat race were then brought up, as follows: N. B. Hayes, driven by Ab Johnson, was a black horse, a little over fifteen hands high, and looked as though he could do some tail trocking. Lady Washington, driven by S. Clark, is a dark bay mare, nearly put together, and gave promise of speed. The mare Lieste Langley was withdrawn by her owner and driver, Mr. J. Moses, on the ground that has mare had opened up a large gap etween them. Atthough Johnson tried hard to chose with his adversary, Clark kept the said daring the entire race, passing the soor race he first thile speed to the save we colone to M. Alexander, Captain V. S. SECOND WARD "Cryggess" "Merring.—A "chizeens" meeting was held at Union Hall, on Fouriceath street, as sight.

On motion of Mr. D. Brown, Mr. Charles Stewart was called to the chair, and Henry Webster was elected secretary pro tran.

Mr. Stewart announced, upon taking the chair, that the meeting was of a reform character. They were trying to effect a reform in the management of our municipal affairs. He said it had been charged that he had been an applicant for a position at the jail. He wanted the man in charge down there to make an affidavit to that effect.

The assistant commissioner of the ward had said that he had been an applicant for the position of commissioner of the ward had said that he had been an applicant for the position of commissioner of the ward. He challenged any man to make an affidavit to that effect, or Mr. Bowen to produce any paper to show it. He paid his compliments to Mr. Bowen, crying he had worked hard for him hast year, and would work as hard against him this year. [Applause.]

The Chair called upon Mr. John B. Hilton for a speech, but he asked to be excused, saying he had come to see what they were doing. He would, however, say that he beartily endorsed what had been and by the previous speaker.

Sam Johnson attempted to speak, but was awing ne and come to see what they were doing. He would, however, say that he beartily endorsed what had been said by the previous speaker.

Sam Johnson attempted to speak, but was constantly interrupted by a number of individuals who had no sympathy with the meeting, and finally squeeked.

Mr. John D. Chark endeavored to secure order, saying the society had reuted the hall and no disturbance would be allowed.

On motion, "the minutes of the last meeting was suspended."

Natinated Hines attempted to speak, but objection was made by Mr. Posey and others. Thes. H. O. Hinton thought there should be no objection to free speech, if confined to the question before the meeting.

Mr. Brown thought shop should know what the men were who winted to speak. The meeting should attend to its own business and not let others come is naid do it for them.

Mr. Stewart here presented a long address, and asked the serviciry to read it, as he could not read very well. The secretary essayed it but failed upon the first half page, and asked Mr. Hinton to read it.

Mr. Hinton managed it very well, and read the document quite floculty. The address, which covered seven pages of legal cap paper, allieds to the synopsis of the speech as published in the Republican of Saturday last.

His purpose, he said, was to publicly inform Mr. Cook, and all those disposed to pin their faith to his const-tail and willing to be duped, soft-scoped and humburged by him, that he conscientionaly believed the colored citizens of Washington had sufficient virue, judgment and intelligence to cushle them to manage their affairs without the interference of Mr. Cook or any other corporation employee.

He denounced the white men who came to their meeting just before the election and their meeting just before the election and their meeting just before the election and their meeting just before the election and manage their affairs without the interference of Mr. Cook or any other corporation employee.

He demonused the white men who came to their meeting just before the election and made professions of love for the negross as not to be trusted. He was not willing to be castaved by the present City Hall Ying, or any other clique whatever. He claimed the right to vote for whoever he considered the best men. He regarded the present city administration—missaamed Republican—as one of the greatest affilicions that had ever been visited upon the people. A general onstaught upon the municipal authorities followed, closing up with another compliment to Mr. Cook.

At the close of the reading Mr. Chaemoved that the man who got up "that presented the thanks of the meeting.

Mr. Brown moved that the document be adopted by the meeting; which was agreed to.

Mr. Hilton again urged freedom of speech, and finally secured a hearing for Mr. Nathaniel Hines, who then took the floor and made a speech, claiming that they had come together for the protection of the colored race. He denounced the theket system of the ward commissioners, and thought as they had been deceived by one party they might try the other, and if they too deceived them then choose the one that secured them is at the colore of his speech there were cries.

try the other, and if they too deceived them then choose the one that accoursed them least.

At the close of his speech there were cries for a number of speakers, and motions, points of orders, &c., and much confusion was the result. The Chair refined to entertain any proposition from others than members of the club. The outsiders protested and the members denounced them.

STILL ON THE RAMPAGE—THE BLOOMER AT THE THEASERY.—Falling to secure a position in the Fost Office Department, Mrs. Dr. Walker turned up in the Internal Revenue Bureau yesterday as an applicant for a position there. Securing an interview with Solicitor Smith, she represented her wants as cloquently as she could, and claimed an office as a matter of right. She did not manifest the same violence as uron the occasion of cooleanty as she command comment an office as a matter of right. She did not manifest the same violence as upon the occasion of her visit to Mr. Creswell, but took a new tack and tried the effect of stars, but without much perceptible effect, for she left without her office, and under circumstances not all encouraging to further attempts to secure a desk in this tureau.

One day last week Mrs. Walker secured an interriew with Deputy Commissioner Douglass, and represented that she had been promised a position in place of the most worthless clerk in the office, who was to be ascertained and discharged. Mr. Douglass put the terms of this application upon paper, and sent the same to Mr. Shurman, who controls the assignment of clerks in the bureau. Mr. Sherman returned the paper with an endorsement to the effect that it would be a useless waste of time to attempt to conform to Mrs. Walker's request, as he knew of none that could be discharged for the cause stated.

Several someer motions were made, when the whole subject was laid on the table. Mike Shiner obtained the floor, and cries for George Hatton, of the Foerth ward, and made one of his characteristic speeches, which was received with much merriment. Several others attempted to address the meeting, when the hat was passed around for a collection, and the club dispersed.

Oak Hall.—Thirty years or more ago a drun in Boston opened a magnificent clothing establishment in that city and gave to it the name of "Oak Hall," and by a system of judicious and extensive advertising gave the place a name all over the country, and "Oak Hall clothing" became as popular as Platon's night-blooming creus or the Drake's plantation bitters, and the proprietors in seve years settled with princely fortunes. Our own city has an "Oak Hall' which bids fair to rival its former namesake, the proprietors having adopted the same policy persence by their illustrious predecessors, vis. to give their customers the best quality of goods, made up in a thorough and workmanilko manuer, and to let the public know of their manner of transacting husiness. Every facility for the manufacture of their goods in the best, most economical and most durable style is made available, and their patrons receive the benefits. The lowest price is paid for the material, by purchasing in large quantities and for each, selected by a competent purchaser, who is always in the market to take advantage of any bargains that may offer, and the articles of clothing made up in ad the capacity. It is well lighted, and their patrons receive the benefits. The lowest price is paid for the material, by purchasing of them the respect to the passer-by.
